Interviewer: Can you tell me something about yourself, Alice?
 Alice: Well, I left school when I was eighteen. That was in 2000. And then I went to university. I studied Politics.
 Interviewer: And that was in Tokyo?
 Alice: Yes, that's right. 1 I finished my course in 2004.
 Interviewer: And what did you do after that?
 Alice: I got a job with a very big trading company. 2
 Interviewer: Did you enjoy it?
 Alice: Yes, I did.
 Interviewer: 3
 Alice: For three years. And then I went to England. You see, the company sent me to London. They wanted me to learn English. So I spent two years in England, learning English. I also took a course in German while I was there.

- A. How old are you when you were there?
- B. I was at Tokyo University for four years.
- C. How long did you stay there?
- D. I joined the Sales Department as a trainee sales manager.

Dialogue 22

- Interviewer: Good. Now I'm going to start off by asking you a different question. Why do you want to work for us, Mr. Smith?
- Smith: First of all, I know your firm has a very good reputation.
- Interviewer: Yes, I think that's true. Anything else?
- Smith: Yes, there is one thing. I know your firm does a good deal of exporting, and eventually I'd like to do something in the export line.
- Interviewer: Yes, 1
- Smith: Well, it's not only that. It seems to me that the export business is growing all the time, and that's where the really interesting executive jobs of the future are going to be.
- Interviewer: Hm ... you certainly don't seem to be setting your sights too low. Now, tell me, 2
- Smith: As I mentioned in my application, I'm an active member of several University clubs, that means I have to do a fair bit of mixing with different kinds of people.
- Interviewer: Do you like people?
- Smith: 3

- A. export has a certain glamor, hasn't it?
- B. Yes, I think I do.
- C. do you think you're what they call a good mixer?
- D. import doesn't interest me at all.

Dialogue 23

- Interviewer: So you'd be ready to start work next September.
- Smith: 1
- Interviewer: You see, Mr. Smith, what we need is a man who gets on well with other people.
- Smith: Yes, I see what you mean.
- Interviewer: And we want you to know what we're looking for, so you can decide whether this is the job you really want.
- Smith: Oh, yes, 2
- Interviewer: Well, 3, so I can't let you know anything definite just now, but you'll be hearing from us in the next few days. So goodbye for now, Mr. Smith.
- Smith: Thank you very much. Goodbye.

- A. I'm not sure if I'd like to work in Tokyo.
- B. we've had quite a lot of applications for this post
- C. That's right.
- D. I'm still sure I want the job if you want me.

Dialogue 24

- A: Hello, what are you looking at?
- B: 1 I am planning to travel, so they sent me these to cheer me up.
- A: That's nice. Look, this postcard is from Beijing. That's a very interesting place to visit.
- B: Yeah, I'm sure it is. But Li Wei says it's tiring to travel around the city.
- A: 2
- B: Let's see. That's from Peter. He went to London last summer and went inside Buckingham palace, where the Queen of England lives.
- A: Oh,
- B: And this is a postcard of Bali Island. Paul was there last week. He says it's very peaceful.
- A: 3
- B: Um... this one. It's from Disneyland. It's so exciting. I'd really love to go.
- A: Why not talk about it with your parents? Maybe it could be a graduation present for you next year.

- A. Just some postcards from friends.
- B. Just bring me those pictures, please.
- C. Where's this one from?
- D. Of all, which postcard do you like best?

Dialogue 25

- A: Hello, Tim!
- B: Hello, Alice! Come in and have a seat. 1
- A: Thank you. I'm coming to say goodbye to you. I'm going to Beijing tomorrow.
- B: Really? What is the purpose of your visit?
- A: I'm going to an English Summer Camp there.
- B: What will you do at camp?
- A: 2
- B: I am sure you will speak English much better. How long will you stay there?
- A: About ten days.
- B: How about visiting some places of interest in your spare time?
- A: Sounds great. 3
- B: The Summer Palace, the Great Wall and some other interesting places. All of them are well worth visiting.
- A: Wonderful!

- A. I will practice my spoken English in a new way.
- B. Make yourself at home.

- C. The tourist bus can take you anywhere.
D. What places do you think I should visit?

Dialogue 26

- A: Hello, this is Lucy speaking. Is that Li Wei?
B: Hi, Lucy! Li Wei speaking. We are expecting your coming.
A: Thank you! My plane leaves Beijing this afternoon.
B: 1
A: It's CA1409.
B: OK, CA1409 2
A: At 3:30 in the afternoon.
B: Leaves at 3:30 and arrives...
A: It arrives at 6:10, and I'll have to wait some time for my luggage.
B: All right. I'll wait for you at the gate at 6:30.
A: Thanks a lot. 3
B: I've ordered a room for you in the center of the city near my home.
A: Wonderful! See you then!
B: See you!

- A. When does it take off?
B. How about my hotel?
C. How long will you stay there?
D. What's your flight number?

Dialogue 27

- W: Excuse me, sir.
M: Yes, what can I do for you, madam?
W: I have been here for an hour to meet my father, 1
M: Are you sure of the time his flight arrives?
W: 2 He told me he would reach the airport at about 1:00 this afternoon.
M: That's true. Flight BA506 has just arrived.
W: What? BA506? Well, I don't think it's his flight number.
M: Do you remember his flight number?
W: Yes, it's VA407. I think... Oh, just a minute, please. Here 3 Sorry, it's VA408.
M: VA408? I see, madam, the flight should arrive at 1:00, but it will be two hours and twenty minutes late because of the bad weather in New York.
W: OK, Then I will have to wait longer. Thank you very much, sir.
M: Good luck! Madam.

- A. But I saw all the passengers come out except him.

- B. I wrote it on my notebook.
 C. All the passengers have their notebooks with them.
 D. Yes, I think so.

 Jim: It's wonderful! 1
 Lily: I'm sorry. I had planned to, but I had a high fever that day.
 Jim: Sorry to hear that. Are you all right now?
 Lily: Yes, thanks. 2
 Jim: Well, we had many different kinds of food, such as chicken, pizza, salads ...
 Lily: Did you have a birthday cake?
 Jim: Yes, a big chocolate one.
 Lily: What about music?
 Jim: It was great! As you know, Linda's brother is a famous DJ, so she brought lots of good CDs with her. 3
 Lily: What time did the party end?
 Jim: At half past two. I couldn't get up the next day.
 Lily: Well, it sounds as if you enjoyed yourselves.
 Jim: Yes. I like having parties because they can make us happy and relaxed.

- A. Why didn't you come?
 B. We danced till two o'clock in the morning.
 C. What did I miss at the party, anyway?
 D. Why did she bring a birthday cake?

Dialogue 29

Z=Zoo manager, C=City government

- Z: What about giving us more money?
 C: I'm sorry, but the government doesn't have any more money for the zoo.
 Z: But if we don't find a solution soon, then we'll have to close it. And the zoo is part of the city. It's a tourist attraction.
 C: Yes, but that's the point. 1 You're going to have to find the money from somewhere else.
 Z: 2 Some of these animals are endangered. If we didn't have zoos, they would die.
 C: I understand that but we need to find a different solution. What if you advertised the zoo more? In the newspaper or on the radio, for example.
 Z: But if we don't have any money, we can't advertise.
 C: 3
 Z: Actually, that isn't a bad idea. You might be right!

C: I have the names of some company managers you could meet...

- A. It's also an important place for animal protection.
- B. There simply aren't enough animals going to it.
- C. There simply aren't enough tourists going to it.
